GREETINGS FROM THE GREAT MICHIGAN NORTHWEST!

Summer in northern Michigan is here! It's shaping up to be pleasant, peaceful and simple. And I am so happy and grateful for that.

Years ago, my mother, Cherry Republic's longest tenured employee, started wearing a t-shirt with a fun saying that fit our little company to a T. It read, "My son is a simpleton. Selling more than one fruit would be too complicated for him." Keeping it simple has always worked for us so we put our mantra on a t-shirt and a hoodie - Keepin' it Simple Since 1989.

And that's the advice my mother would love us to carry on for her this summer. So grab a towel and go lay on Good Harbor Beach all day. Or put your devices down and read a book under a white oak tree. Or make a fruit salad with nothing but cherries... Just remember to keep it simple!

As for what is happening this summer at Cherry Republic? Simple stuff. Colebrook's working at our Cherry Public House. Hawthorn will be scooping Ice Cream in the NEW Dessert Shipping Container. Sonny will be cleaning up every dropped sample in our perennial gardens. And I will be greeting and introducing everyone to many new cherry products to sample at the Great Hall in my hometown of Glen Arbor. We can't wait to see you!
